

Call for papers

Digital Panopticon: Tracing London Convicts in Britain and Australia

13-15 September 2017, St George's Hall, Liverpool

This three day conference marks the completion of a four year project funded by the AHRC: The Digital Panopticon: The global impact of London punishments 1780-1925.

We invite papers on any aspect of crime and punishment in Britain and its penal colonies between 1780 and 1925. We also welcome papers which include a comparative dimension with other times and places; papers on digital history, life-histories of prisoners and convicts. There will be dedicated space at the conference for those wishing to display research posters.

Please send an abstract of 200 words (for papers lasting no longer than 20 minutes), or panel proposals (3-5 speakers) by no later than 31st March 2017 to Lucy Williams (lwill@liverpool.ac.uk) or Barry Godfrey (barry.godfrey@liverpool.ac.uk)

Tracing London convicts in Britain and Australia,
1780 - 1925